Blue Equity invests in Langebæk A/S

Blue Equity contracts a partnership with Langebæk A/S and acquire minority shareholding in one of Scandinavia's leading advising consultant houses within Supply Chain management, logistic and storage. The existing partners: Peter Gyldendal, Lars Bek Jensen, Anders Bartholin, Christoph Ohly, and John Carstens continue as essential shareholders. At the same time a new board existing of respectively Peter Midtgaard as chairman of the board and Roar Brun Jensen as member is formed.

Langebæk A/S was founded in 1977 and today it has nearly 40 employees. The consultant house advises companies in Northern Europe on a strategic and operational level based on facts, analyses, and well tested processes. Thus, Langebæk helps through its 45 years of experience with value-creating solutions, that creates measurable improvements in the individual functions across the supply chain.

The customer portfolio includes smaller to bigger European companies across branches, among other things; Coop, Rema 1000, Salling Group, Jysk, Matas, Novo Nordisk, Elgiganten, Axfood, Elektroskandia, Brødrene Dahl, Lyko, a wide range of airports and public institutions, such as The Defence, regions, municipalities, and several hospitals.

Langebæk has its head office in Allerød in Denmark, and has offices in Örebro, Sweden and in Oslo, Norway.

"We look forward to the partnership with Blue Equity. They focus on long-term partnerships with well-functioning companies concerning further development. It has been important for us to find a partner that sees new development opportunities on the long run. Therefore we believe that Blue Equity is the right match for Langebæk. The collaboration allows us to continue Langebæk's very positive development based on our good foundation, including especially our very skilled employees and unique culture. We will have a strong partner who shares our values and ambitions", says Peter Gyldendal, CEO and Senior Partner in Langebæk.

"Langebæk has great potential for further growth. It is a solidly anchored company that, with the right management together with the competent employees, is ready to take the company to the next level. Our contribution is development within management, structures, and processes. With the investment in Langebæk, we not only step into a well-established company with a healthy culture. We invest in a market leading consultant house within its field, and not to forget the employees in the company. Langebæk represents a knowledge-intensive knowhow within dedicated employees, a high customer- and employee satisfaction and a strong company culture. We are proud that the management of Langebæk has chosen us as partners and we are looking forward to our journey together," Christian Møller, Managing Partner in Blue Equity concludes.
